Bhutan’s Project 108 Reaches Auspicious Completion

OOSS Global Makes Sacred Offerings in Prayer for World Peace

November 1, 2026 — Gelephu Mindfulness City, Bhutan. On the banks of the Mao Chhu River, at the foothills of the Himalayas, 108 Bodhi Stupas, each standing 15 metres tall, were completed in a single day. Initiated by His Majesty King Jigme Khesar Namgyel Wangchuck of Bhutan, Project 108 not only set a Guinness World Record, but also gathered the heartfelt aspirations of nearly 200,000 people from around the world, all joined in prayer for world peace and the happiness and well-being of all sentient beings.

OOSS Global is deeply honoured to have taken part in this auspicious and meritorious undertaking. We were privileged to be the sole sponsor of the construction of Stupa No. 45, and to make a complete offering of the Five Core Sacred Offering Items for all 108 stupas, together with an additional 20 sets for Shambhala Dzong and the 21 Tara Retreat Centre. From beginning to end, we had the privilege of witnessing the rising of this remarkable monument of the spirit.

Master Zhang Bu Sheng's Compassionate Leadership: Turning Great Love into Action

Loving-kindness without conditions; compassion that sees all beings as one. OOSS Global's deep involvement in Project 108 arose from a profound act of compassion on the part of Master Zhang Bu Sheng. Guided by the Buddha's teachings, Master Zhang has always devoted himself to turning great love into practical action for the benefit of others. In response to the far-reaching initiative of His Majesty the King of Bhutan, Master Zhang Bu Sheng wholeheartedly embraced the vision, personally overseeing the arrangements and leading the OOSS Global team, an auspicious opportunity to plant the seeds of goodness for a world of happiness.

Sacred Offerings Enshrined on the Prayer Mandala

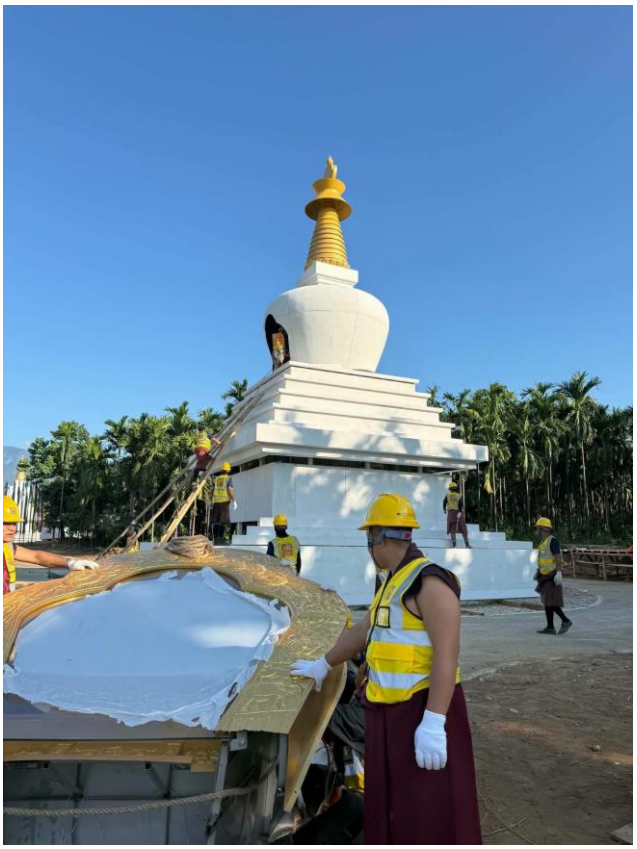

To help bring this auspicious and meritorious work to fulfilment, OOSS Global made its offerings with pure intention and utmost sincerity. It is a source of special joy in the Dharma that the core sacred items we offered, among them the Standing Statue of Guru Padmasambhava, the Tenfold Auspiciousness Plaque and the Vajrasattva Vajra Heart, were solemnly displayed on the prayer mandala of the event, for all to pay homage and offer their prayers.

OOSS Global's offerings comprised the following:

• Supporting the Construction of Stupa No. 45

OOSS Global fully sponsored the construction of Stupa No. 45, rejoicing in the opportunity to forge this sacred bond with the Buddha. Remarkably, through the shared aspiration of all who joined in, the US$200,000 needed to build this stupa was raised in full within a single day! Revealing the unity of devotees around the world, who walk the same path with the same vow. May this stupa become a refuge for all sentient beings, helping them be free from suffering and find happiness!

• Offering 108 Complete Sets of the Five Core Sacred Offering Items

A complete set of sacred offerings was offered to each of the 108 stupas. Each set consists of five sacred items:

- 38cm Gold-Plated Standing Statue of Guru Padmasambhava — symbolising Vajra Body
- Gold-Plated Vajra and Bell — symbolising Vajra Speech
- Tenfold Auspiciousness Plaque — symbolising auspiciousness and perfection

• Vajrasattva Vajra Heart — symbolising Vajra Heart

• A-Syllable Crystal Sphere — symbolising Vajra Mind

(Each of the 108 stupas houses one complete set of offering items provided by OOSS Global.)

- An Additional 20 Sets Offered to Shambhala Dzong and the 21 Tara Retreat Centre

Beyond the 108 stupas, OOSS Global separately offered a further 20 sets of the same specification, the same Five Core Sacred Offering Items, to Shambhala Dzong and the 21 Tara Retreat Centre, upholding Bhutan's Buddhist culture and spiritual heritage through practical action.

From the building of the stupas to the offering of the sacred items, every aspiration carries reverence for the Dharma and sincere prayers for world peace and the well-being of all sentient beings.

Honoured by the Royal Family and the Highest Monastic Leadership: Sacred Offerings Solemnly Enshrined

Most auspiciously, the Five Sacred Offering Items, personally overseen by Master Zhang Bu Sheng and offered by OOSS Global with utmost sincerity, were ceremoniously placed on the central mandala during an important ceremony attended by both the Bhutanese Royal Family and the highest monastic leadership, a mark of the special meaning of this offering.

At this solemn ceremony, graced by the presence of His Majesty the King of Bhutan, members of the Royal Family, His Holiness the Je Khenpo and the four Lopen Rinpoches, the Standing Statue of Guru Padmasambhava, the Vajra and Bell, the Tenfold Auspiciousness Plaque, the Vajrasattva Vajra Heart and the A-Syllable Crystal Sphere were reverently displayed on the mandala, carrying pure aspirations for world peace and the well-being of all sentient beings.

These offerings were held in high regard by the Royal Family and the highest monastic leadership. Their value lies not only in the sacred consecration items themselves, but in what they express: practical support for preserving Buddhist culture and nurturing spiritual development.

Joining Dharma Friends from Around the World in a Historic Gathering

The event coincided with the 18th anniversary of His Majesty the King's coronation and Buddha's Descent Day. Led by Master Zhang Bu Sheng, representatives of OOSS Global travelled to Gelephu to take part in this historic occasion in person.

There, we beheld the sacred items offered by OOSS Global shining with the light of compassion upon the mandala, standing before the magnificent rows of stupas stretching into the distance. Together with participants from around the world, we witnessed the solemn occasion of 40,000 volunteers working as one. Amid fluttering prayer flags and the sound of chanting, Master Zhang led the team in a heartfelt dedication of merit, praying that the merit gathered from countless good intentions be dedicated to all sentient beings without exception.

Royal Banquet: Warm Words from the King, Shared Moment with the Prime Minister

At the royal reception banquet held during the foundation-laying ceremony for Shambhala Dzong, Master Zhang Bu Sheng conversed cordially with members of the Bhutanese Royal Family and government leaders.

During the banquet, His Majesty the Fifth King of Bhutan warmly greeted Master Zhang Bu Sheng. The atmosphere was at once heartfelt and dignified, leaving a treasured moment of exchange.

The Prime Minister of Bhutan also posed for a commemorative photograph with Master Zhang, recording a cherished moment of friendship during the visit.

From the solemn offering of the sacred consecration items and the foundation-laying ceremony to the warm exchanges at the royal banquet, this visit to Bhutan has deepened bonds of friendship and opened favourable opportunities for future exchange and cooperation in Buddhist culture.

His Majesty the King of Bhutan with Master Zhang Bu Sheng

The Prime Minister of Bhutan with Master Zhang Bu Sheng

His Eminence Laytshog Lopen Rinpoche of the Central Monastic Body with Master Zhang Bu Sheng and the OOSS Global team

Forging a Bond with Bhutan for Long-Term Exchange and Cooperation

With the successful completion of Project 108, OOSS Global's blessed journey does not end here. Our team remains in this land of compassion and wisdom, where we will continue to engage in deeper exchange and cooperation with many sectors of Bhutanese society. We will carry this affinity, spanning mountains and seas, forward, so that great love may take root and flourish in more lands of happiness.

OOSS Global offers its heartfelt gratitude to His Majesty the King of Bhutan and the people of Bhutan. We are deeply thankful that His Majesty, with immense compassion and wisdom, has given beings around the world this precious opportunity to accumulate merit.

We are likewise profoundly grateful to every devotee who placed their trust in and followed Master Zhang Bu Sheng, and who took part in the stupa offerings through OOSS Global. Regardless the amount given, every good intention has been woven into these 108 stupas, becoming a cause of benefit for all sentient beings.

The stupas stand majestic; compassion flows without bounds. Under the guidance of Master Zhang Bu Sheng, OOSS Global will continue to uphold the spirit of great love and give back to society through good deeds.

May this auspicious affinity of building stupas become a cause of peace and happiness for all sentient beings.

May the world be at peace, may all beings be free from suffering, and may the True Dharma abide for ages to come.

OOSS Global

November 2026, with reverence